

-  In-Town Area and those parts of Etna Village zoned SR-2 and B-1
-  Boundary of Rural Area zoned RR, F, and NP
-  100-foot contour
-  Ridgeline
-  Ridgeline Buffer (500' & 1000')
-  Elevation above 1500 feet on Moose Mountain
-  Areas of elevations below a summit:
  -  0 to -100 feet
  -  -100 to -200 feet
-  Agricultural soils:
  -  of national importance
  -  of state importance
  -  of local importance
-  Areas with slopes greater than 25%
-  Existing Protected Lands:
  -  with no further development potential
  -  with restricted development potential

sources:
 United States Geological Survey
 United States Department of Agriculture
 Appalachian Trail Conservancy
 Federal Emergency Management Agency
 Complex Systems Research Center at the University of New Hampshire
 N.H. Departments of Fish & Game and Environmental Services
 Grafton County Registry of Deeds
 Town of Hanover Assessors, Planning, and Public Works records

scale = 1 : 50,000      1 inch = 4,167 feet = 0.80 miles

Town of Hanover, New Hampshire drawn by Jonathan Edwards      Department of Planning & Zoning January 2008

Study Map #11
 December 17, 2007
 revised January 7, 2008

Proposed Rural Resource
 Lands