Sustaining Landscapes...

- promote well-being for all creatures great and small, young and old.

- include native habitats for threatened pollinators and other wildlife.

- contain edible landscaping by incorporating fruits, vegetables, berries and nuts into ornamental plantings.

- include rain gardens and detention ponds to reduce the impacts of stormwater runoff.

- realize the benefits of composting and reduce the negative impacts of non-natural fertilizers and pesticides, especially on lawns.